Havana Police Handle Yankee Sailors Roughly

HAVANA, July 9.-Cuban government authorities today investigated charges that Havana police have been guilty of too severe handling of United States sailors during the visit of the Connecticut here. The situation reached a crisis after a number of jackles were unceremoniously put in sail for skylarking.

States Minister Gonzales brought the matter to the attention of government officials. The bluejackets were released when it was intimated that American sailors would not be given shore leave at Havana, if they were not accorded better treatment.

British Tennis Star Must Quit Tournament

LONDON, July 2.-England's hopes of success in the international tennis tournament for the Davis Cup were given a severe blow today. H. Roper Barrett, the star of the British team, announced it would be impossible for him to make the trip to America should the English defeat the French team in matches yet to be played.
